Printer Problems

I had been doing Tech Support for Hewlett-Packard's DeskJet division for about a month when I had a customer call with a problem I just couldn't solve. She could not print yellow. All the other colors would print fine, which truly baffled me because the only true colors are cyan, magenta, and yellow.

For instance, green is a combination of cyan and yellow, but green printed fine. Every color of the rainbow printed fine except for yellow. I had the customer change ink cartridges. I had the customer delete and reinstall the drivers. Nothing worked. I asked my coworkers for help; they offered no new ideas.

After over two hours of troubleshooting, I was about to tell the customer to send the printer in to us for repair when she asked quietly, "Should I try printing on a piece of white paper instead of this yellow paper?"

What to Do With Your Carved Pumpkin After Halloween

If you already carved your pumpkin into a jack-o-lantern, here are some do's and don't's for you after Halloween

Do:

- Put it in the compost heap - it will make good fertilizer
- Bury it in the garden - it will decay quickly and enrich the soil
- Wash, dry and save the seeds to plant next year (they will grow!)
- Wash and roast the seeds - they make good eating.
- Dump it in the trash, if you haven't got a garden

Don't:

- Use it as a door stop
- Keep it indoors: it will rot and stain the floor
- Put it in the attic for next Halloween
- Attempt to eat it or cook with it.
- Use it in cold fusion experiments

Electrons

Professor Stein was lecturing his physics class. "If molecules can be split into atoms and the atoms split into electrons, can the electrons be broken down any further?"

A pupil replied, "I'm not certain, but a sure way to find out would be to mail some of them in a package marked FRAGILE."

Encyclopedia

Working as a computer instructor for an adult-education program at a community college, I am keenly aware of the gap in computer knowledge between my younger and older students.

My observations were confirmed the day a new student walked into our library area and glanced at the encyclopedia volumes stacked on a bookshelf.

"What are all these books?" he asked.

Somewhat surprised, I replied that they were encyclopedias.

"Really?" he said. "Someone printed out the whole thing?"

A Better Turkey

An industrious turkey farmer was always experimenting with breeding to perfect a better turkey. His family was fond of the leg portion for dinner and there were never enough legs for everyone. After many frustrating attempts, the farmer was relating the results of his efforts to his friends at the general store get together. "Well I finally did it! I bred a turkey that has 6 legs!"

They all asked the farmer how it tasted. "I don't know" said the farmer. "I never could catch the darn thing!"

Country Road Information

A fellow was walking along a country road and came upon a farmer working in his field. The man called out to the farmer and asked how long it would take him to get to the next town.

The farmer didn't answer. So, after waiting a bit, the fellow started walking again.

After the man had gone about 100 yards, the farmer yelled to him and said, "About 20 minutes."

Confused, the man turned back toward the farmer and inquired, "Why didn't you tell me that when I asked you?"

"Well," said the farmer, "I didn't know how fast you could walk."

Why Dogs Can't Use Computers

- 1- He's distracted by cats chasing his mouse.
- 2- SIT and STAY were hard enough; CUT and PASTE are out of the question.
- 3- Saliva-coated floppy disks refuse to work.
- 4- Three words: carpal paw syndrome.
- 5- Involuntary tail wagging is a dead give-away that he's browsing www.purina.com instead of working.
- 6- The fire hydrant icon is simply too frustrating.
- 7- He can't help attacking the screen when he hears "You've Got Mail".
- 8- It's too messy to "mark" every Web site he visits.
- 9- The FETCH command isn't available on all platforms.
- 10- He can't stick his head out of Windows.

The Perfect Woman

A young man finds the woman of his dreams and asks her to marry him. He tells his mother he wants her to meet his fiance, but he wants to make a bit of a game out of it. He says he'll bring the girl over with two other women and see if his mother can guess which is the one he wants to marry. His mother agrees to the game.

That night, he shows up at his mother's house with three beautiful young ladies. They all sit down on the couch, and everyone has a wonderful evening talking and getting to know each other.

At the end of the evening, the young man asks his mother, 'OK, Mom, which one is the woman I want to marry?'

Without any hesitation at all, his mother replies, 'The one in the middle.'

The young man is astounded. 'How in the world did you figure it out?'

'Easy,' she says. 'I don't like her.'

Fight Like a Man

There were three guys talking in the pub. Two of them are talking about the amount of control they have over their wives, while the third remains quiet. After a while one of the first two turns to the third and says, "Well, what about you, what sort of control do you have over your wife?"

The third fellow says "I'll tell you. Just the other night my wife came to me on her hands and knees."

The first two guys were amazed. "What happened then?" they asked. "She said, 'get out from under the bed and fight like a man!'"

Love For The Money

Two bachelors were talking about their respective choice of life partner. One friend said, 'It is generally said that people with opposite characteristics make the happiest marriages. What is your opinion?'

The friend replied, 'Yes, they are right. That is why I am looking for a girl with a lot of money!'

Windsor Castle

Windsor Castle, outside of London, is directly in the flight path of Heathrow International Airport. While a group of tourists was standing outside the castle admiring the elegant structure, a plane flew overhead at a relatively low altitude, making a tremendous noise. One particularly annoyed tourist whined, "Why did they build the castle so close to the airport?"

Is Martha Stewart Stalking Your Dog

Top Ten Ways to Tell if Martha Stewart is Stalking Your Dog:

- There's potpourri hanging from your pooch's collar.
- The dog's nails have been trimmed with pinking shears.
- The dog toys are all stored in McCoy crocks.
- The pooper scooper has been decorated with raffia bows.
- That telltale lemon slice in the new silver water bowl.
- You find liver and whole wheat dog treats stamped out with copper cookie cutters and decorated with royal icing using a #2 rosette tip.
- Dog hair has been collected and put into wire baskets for nesting material for the birds.
- A seasonally appropriate grapevine wreath adorns the front of the doghouse.
- Your dog goes outside naked and comes in wearing an apricot colored virgin wool hand-knitted sweater with matching boots.

AND THE NUMBER ONE WAY YOU KNOW THAT MARTHA STEWART IS STALKING YOUR DOG IS...

- The dog droppings in your backyard have been sculpted into swans.

How is it one careless match can start a forest fire, but it takes a whole box to start a campfire?

Bad Day?

How can you tell when it's going to be a bad day?
• You wake up and discover your waterbed broke and then realize that you don't have a waterbed.
• You turn on the news and they're showing emergency routes out of the city.
• Your wife says "Good Morning, Bill" and your name is Frank.
• You see a "60 Minutes" news team waiting in your office.
• Your boss tells you not to bother to take off your coat.
• You call the Suicide Prevention Hotline and they put you on hold.
• Your tax refund check bounces.
• Your blind date turns out to be your ex-wife.

Doing vs Thinking

As a network administrator, I get annoyed with requests to open a set number of ports on a firewall when the numbers don't match.

For example: Please open the following 10 ports: 49120-49130.

I respond - Do you want:

- A. Eleven ports - 49120-49130 B. Ten ports - 49120-49129
C. Ten ports - 49121-49130 D. None of the above.

For the moment you're getting: D. None of the above.

THE BOSS'S BASIC RULES

- Rule 1: The Boss is always right!
- Rule 2: In the impossible hypothesis that a subordinate may be right, becomes immediately operative.
- Rule 3: The boss does not sleep; he rests.
- Rule 4: The Boss is never late; he is delayed elsewhere.
- Rule 5: The Boss never leaves his work; his attention is required elsewhere.
- Rule 6: The Boss never reads the paper in his office; he studies.
- Rule 7: The Boss is always chief, even in his bathing togs.
- Rule 8: Whomsoever may enter the boss's office with an idea of his own must leave the office with the boss's ideas.
- Rule 9: If, in your lamentable ignorance, you fail to grasp the truth, fear not; return to rule 1.

More Office Humor

- Don't ask me; I was hired for my looks.
- Too few of the bucks stop here.
- If you don't know what you're doing, do it neatly.
- Work fascinates me. I can sit and watch it for hours.
- When in charge, ponder. When in doubt, mumble.
- When in trouble, delegate.
- I'd like to help you out. Which way did you come in?
- The secret of success is sincerity. Once you can fake that you've got it made.

The New Conductor

The symphony musicians had little confidence in the person brought in to be their new conductor. Their fears were realized at the very first rehearsal. The cymbalist, realizing that the conductor did not know what he was doing, angrily clashed his instruments together during a delicate, soft passage.

The music stopped. The conductor, highly agitated, looked angrily around the orchestra, demanding, "Who did that? Who did that?"

I MADE WINE OUT OF RAISINS SO I WOULDN'T HAVE TO WAIT FOR IT TO AGE.

The Cow

A big city lawyer was called in on a case between a farmer and the railroad company. A farmer noticed that his prize cow was missing from the field which the railroad passed through. He filed suit against the railroad company for the value of the cow. The case was to be tried before the justice of the peace in the back room of the general store. The attorney immediately cornered the farmer and tried to get him to settle out of court. The lawyer did his best selling job, and the farmer finally agreed to take half of what he was claiming to settle the case.

After the farmer signed the release and took the check, the young lawyer couldn't help but gloat a little over his success. He said to the farmer, "You know, I hate to tell you this but I put one over on you in there. I couldn't have won the case. The engineer was asleep and the fireman was in the caboose when the train went through your farm that morning. I didn't have one witness to put on the stand."

The old farmer replied, "Well, I'll tell you, young feller, I was a little worried about winning that case myself because that durned cow came home this morning!"

For Teachers

- Old teachers never die, they just grade away.
- In college I'm studying Pharmacy - because I've always wanted to be a farmer.
- In school I was the teacher's pet. She couldn't afford a dog.
- My parents sent me to boarding school so that they wouldn't have to help me with my homework.
- Teacher: Billy, why have you not given me your homework?
Billy: I made it into a paper aeroplane and someone hijacked it.
- Father: Son, what are your results in the end of term examination?
Son: Underwater.
Father: What do you mean, underwater?
Son: Below "C" level.
- Old Chemistry professors never die, they just smell that way!
- Teacher: "What is the outer part of a tree called?"
Pupil: "I don't know sir."
Teacher: "Bark, boy bark."
Pupil: "Woof-woof."

Lawyer Overboard

It was recently said that a lawyer was fishing in the Atlantic, when a sudden swell threw him into the water. A school of man-eating sharks immediately converged on him, but they lifted him out of the water, and carefully swam him to the shore, where he waded out of the water.

He turned, and asked them why they had saved his life instead of eating him alive. One of the sharks smiled, and said "Professional Courtesy!"

- Some Questions...Hum?
- Is an angle a triangle with only two sides?
  - Why isn't there mouse-flavored cat food?
  - How come you never hear about grunted employees?
  - What is a "free" gift? Aren't all gifts free?
  - What happened to the first 6 "ups"?
  - When your pet bird sees you reading the newspaper, does he wonder why you're sitting there, staring at carpeting?
  - If a train-station is where a train stops, what happens at a workstation?
  - If olive oil comes from olives, where does baby oil come from?
  - When you're sending someone styrofoam, what do you pack it in?
  - Why do they call it a TV set when you only get one?
  - Can you call someone on the other side of the international date line and get tomorrow's winning lottery numbers?
  - Where do they get the seeds to grow seedless oranges?
  - Why isn't phonetic spelled the way it sounds?
  - Why are there so many Smiths in the phone book?
They all have phones.
  - Why is "abbreviation" such a long word?
  - Why is the alphabet in that order? Is it because of that song?
  - Why is there an expiration date on sour cream?

Good News and Bad News

"I have good news and bad news," a defence attorney told his client.

"First the bad news. The blood test came back, and your DNA is an exact match with that found at the crime scene."

"Oh, no!" cried the client. "What's the good news?"

"Your cholesterol is down to 140."

Proper Introductions

"You are a cheat!" shouted the attorney to his opponent.

"And you're a liar!" bellowed the opposition.

Banging his gavel loudly, the judge interjected, "Now that both attorneys have been identified for the record, let's get on with the case."

~~~~~

It's never too late to be happy. But it's all up to you and no one else.

Your Hearing Is Fine Now!

Seems an elderly gentleman had serious hearing problems for a number of years. He went to the doctor and the doctor was able to have him fitted for a set of hearing aids that allowed the gentleman to hear 100%. The elderly gentleman went back in a month to the doctor and the doctor said, "your hearing is perfect. Your family must be really pleased that you can hear again."

To which the gentleman said, "Oh, I haven't told my family yet. I just sit around and listen to the conversations. I've changed my will three times!"

Dog I.Q.
A psychologist is selling a video that teaches you how to test your dog's IQ. Here's how it works: When you spend $39.95 to see this video, it proves your dog is smarter than you.

The Golfer
A golfer hit his drive on the first hole 300 yards right down the middle. When it came down, however, it hit a sprinkler and the ball went sideways into the woods. He was angry, but he went into the woods and hit a very hard 2 iron which hit a tree and bounced back straight at him. It hit him in the temple and killed him.

He was at the Pearly Gates and St. Peter looked at the big book and said, "I see you were a golfer, is that correct?" "Yes, I am," he replied. St. Peter then said, "Do you hit the ball a long way?" The golfer replied, "You bet. After all, I got here in 2, didn't I?"

Divorce
After suffering through years of his wife's awful coffee, the man spat it out and took the coffee maker to his lawyer. Dropping it on the attorney's desk, the man growled, "Here they are!" "Here are what?" the startled lawyer asked. "Grounds for Divorce."

Senility Prayer
For those of us who are getting a little older:
God grant me the senility to forget the people I never liked anyway, the good fortune to run into the ones I do, and the eyesight to tell the difference.

Famous Italian Proverbs

- He who begins many things finishes but few.
- Anger can be an expensive luxury.
- Better give a penny than lend twenty.
- Give time time.
- Necessity becomes will.
- The habit doesn't make a monk.
- One who sleeps doesn't catch fish.
- Silence was never written down.

Wire Guard
Gale-force winds and frigid temperatures had taken their toll. Snapped electric wires were sparking and snaking about the snowdrifts. As a foot patrolman, I was assigned to a desolate intersection to provide security at the scene of a downed wire. It was 12:40 a.m. and -19 degrees when I relieved the initial guardian of this dangerous area. He pointed out the thin line swinging ferociously from the main electric circuit, as he entered the squad car for his return to warmth. I pulled my coat collar up to my earmuffs and took up my position to protect the public. Finally, at 5:40 a.m., a utility truck arrived. The two linemen checked the wires, then laughing, descended the utility pole toward me. "Well, Officer," one of them said, "congratulations. You've successfully guarded a frozen kite string all night."

Magnetic Letters
A kindergartner was practicing spelling with magnetic letters on the refrigerator: CAT, DOG, DAD, and MOM have been proudly displayed for all to see. One morning while getting ready for the day, he bounded into the room with his arms outstretched. In his hands were three magnetic letters: G-O-D. "Look what I spelled, Mom!" with a proud smile on his face. "That's wonderful!" his mom praised him. "Now go put them on the fridge so Dad can see when he gets home tonight." The mom happily thought that the religious education is certainly having an impact. Just then, a little voice called from the kitchen. "Mom? How do you spell ZILLA?"

The Only Stupid Question.....
The only stupid question is the one that is never asked. Except maybe "Don't you think it is about time you audited my return?" or "Isn't it morally wrong to give me a warning when, in fact, I was speeding?"

Severe Thunderstorm
A passenger jet was suffering through a severe thunderstorm. As the passengers were being bounced around by the turbulence, a young woman turned to a minister sitting next to her and with a nervous laugh asked, "Reverend, you're a man of God, can't you do something about this storm?" To which he replied, "Lady, I'm in sales, not management."

Little Red Wagon

A firefighter is working outside the station when he notices a little girl in a little red wagon with small ladders on the sides, a garden hose coiled in the middle, and wearing a firefighter's helmet. The wagon is being pulled by her dog and her cat.

The firefighter takes a closer look. "That sure is a nice fire-truck," the fire fighter says with high regard. Thanks," says the girl says!

The firefighter notices the girl has tied the wagon to her dog's collar and to the cat's tail.

"Little lady," the firefighter says, "I don't want to tell you how to run your rig, but if you were to tie that rope around the cat's collar, I think you could go faster."

The little girl replies thoughtfully, "You're probably right, but...then I wouldn't have a siren!"

The Great News

The newlywed wife said to her husband when he returned from work, "I have great news for you. Pretty soon, we're going to be three in this house instead of two."

Her husband ran to her with a smile on his face and delight in his eyes.

He was glowing of happiness and kissing his wife when she said, "I'm glad that you feel this way since tomorrow morning, my mother moves in with us."

Judge's Note

The judge passed the bailiff a note: "Blind on right side, may be falling. Please call someone."

The bailiff rushed out of the room. Minutes later, the paramedics arrived asking for the stroke victim.

Pointing to a sagging Venetian blind on the right side of the room, the judge said to the bailiff, "I was thinking someone from building maintenance ..."

Famous Irish Proverbs

- A change of work is as good as a rest.
- Trouble hates nothing as much as a smile.
- May you live as long as you want, and never want as long as you live.
- A good retreat is better than a bad stand.

Thoughts on Housekeeping

Vacuuming too often weakens the carpet fibers. Say this with a serious face, and shudder delicately whenever anyone mentions Carpet Fresh.

Dust bunnies can evolve into dust rhinos when disturbed. Rename the area under the couch "The Galapagos Islands" and claim an ecological exemption.

Layers of dirty film on windows and screens provide a helpful filter against harmful and aging rays from the sun. Call it an SPF factor of 5 and leave it alone.

We're getting a Divorce
 An elderly man in Phoenix calls his son in New York and says, "I hate to ruin your day, but I have to tell you that your mother and I are divorcing; forty-five years of misery is enough."
 "Pop, what are you talking about?" the son screams.
 "We can't stand the sight of each other any longer," the old man says. "We're sick of each other, and I'm sick of talking about this, so you call your sister in Chicago and tell her," and he hangs up.
 Frantic, the son calls his sister, who explodes on the phone. "There is no way they're getting divorced," she shouts, "I'll take care of this."
 She calls Phoenix immediately, and screams at the old man, "You are NOT getting divorced. Don't do a single thing until I get there. I'm calling my brother back, and we'll both be there tomorrow. Until then, don't do a thing, DO YOU HEAR ME?" and hangs up.
 The old man hangs up his phone, too, and turns to his wife. "Okay," he says, "they're coming for Thanksgiving. Now what do we tell them for Christmas?"

Negotiating a trip home
 Bob had been shopping downtown all day with his wife and four little children. They were all so tired, he decided to take a taxicab home.
 Approaching a cab driver, he demanded, "How much will you charge to drive us to the Bronx?"
 "I figure $5 apiece for you and your wife," said the driver. "I'll take the four kids along for nothing."
 Bob turned to his children and said, "Jump in kids, and have a nice ride home. Momma and I will take the subway."

Colorful Love
 It was their fifth anniversary, and Al and Alice had just returned from the movies.
 Alice was feeling romantic. "Will you love me when my hair has turned to silver?" she crooned.
 "Why not?" Al grunted. "Didn't I love you through four other shades?"

Clothing Store
 While working in a clothing store, I noticed that people had no shame about returning items that had been worn. One rainy morning I walked in and found a discolored blazer hanging on the rack with other returns.
 "People return the most filthy, nasty things," I commented to my supervisor who was standing nearby.
 With an eyebrow raised, she said, "That's MY jacket."
