The Pony Express

At a Milwaukee post office, a woman complained to the clerk that a Pony Express rider could get a letter from Milwaukee to St. Louis in two days, and now it takes three. "I'd like to know why," she scoffed.

The clerk thought about it for a moment, then his face brightened and he replied, "The horses are a lot older now?"

Shoplifter
My friend, the manager of a grocery store, nabbed a shoplifter in the act. He was escorting the suspect to the office in the front of the store (near the cash registers), when the shoplifter broke from his grip and tried to run.

After a scuffle, my friend pinned him against the wall and looked up to see a number of surprised customers staring at him.

"Everything's fine, folks," he reassured them. "This guy just tried to go through the express line with more than ten items."

Contractor Committed To:

One Hour Heating Helping 18 Homeowners
By "Giving Away" $3,427 Furnaces For $941 with Off-Season Air Conditioning

If you qualify, local utilities may offer up to $700 in rebates towards your new system.

Dear Neighbor:

I have great news for your wallet if your furnace is over 12 years old. Allow me to explain... Every year, the months of January, February and March can be slow for my business. I employ great people and want to keep them working during these long, slow months. That is why I've come up with a Win-Win Situation for both of us.

Every year, the big manufacturers of furnaces & air conditioners have to guess how many to build to meet the demand. Of course, they're never exactly right. So, they always have some inventory that they must hold over until the next summer season. I went to one of these companies and contracted for the purchase of eighteen Deluxe furnaces and air conditioners in the four most popular sizes used in Kane County. And, because of the quantity and time of year, I was able to buy them at drastically reduced prices.

They are brand-new Deluxe Models. They are NOT the seconds or "blem" or standard "builder" models. They are factory-fresh furnaces and air conditioners and have a full 10-year factory warranty.

How To Get A Furnace For Peanuts

If you are interested in a new heating/cooling system (but only if one of the four sizes I have will fit your house, of course), I am "giving" you the furnace and all I ask for is the $941 in labor & material costs for installation.

Perfect Fit For Your Home

I will come out and measure your home (and determine the availability of the proper size). Don't forget, I only have eighteen matched Deluxe systems in four sizes. When they are gone, this remarkable offer ends also. Just call Heather at 630-262-8484.

Absolutely No Obligation

After I completely explain the installation, there is absolutely no obligation. If you decide you don't want to take advantage of the spectacular savings... I will give you a surprise gift worth $25 because you gave me a chance. I want you to think well of One Hour Heating & Air Conditioning™ even if you don't invest.

You Can Buy With NO Cash

I have set up a terrific 0%* bank rate payment plan. Consider this: If you decide to make monthly investments instead of paying cash, the entire amount of your payments might be more than offset by the savings on your utility bills. It's like "having your cake and eating it too."

Fuel Efficiency Guarantee

I'm so confident that you will save at least 25% on your heating and cooling bills that I will pay you the difference for a year if you don't! I'll show you exactly how this works. I can make this promise because these heating and air conditioning systems are among the best on the market.

Why This Offer Can't Last

I only have a few of each of the four sizes. When all of the air conditioners are sold and all the furnaces are "given" away, that's it. There are no more at this price. Call Heather at 630-262-8484 and she will set an appointment for your no-obligation survey.

Warmly,

Chris Carpenter

Childbirth

After learning the Lamaze method of natural childbirth, I was admitted to the delivery room with my wife.

It seemed like an eternity before the doctor finally announced, "I've got the head now; just a few more minutes."

"Is it a girl or boy?" I asked excitedly.

The doctor replied, "I don't know. It's hard to tell by the ears."

Late for Class

At a prestigious university there is a clear hierarchy that outlines how long one was to wait for a class to begin if the professor were absent. A full professor rated fifteen minutes. An associate only ten. A mere instructor was expected to be on time, if not early. This system worked only one way, however; and students were afforded no such grace.

It was to be expected, therefore, that one professor, the foremost authority in his field by his own admission, would register distinct annoyance when a student, just out of military service, was late for class for the third morning running.

"Tell me," the professor began, "exactly what did they say in the Army when you sauntered in late like this?"

"Well," mused the unperturbed young man... "first they saluted, then they asked, 'How are you this morning, sir?'"

Tail Light

"How long have you been driving without a tail light?" asked the policeman after pulling over a motorist.

The driver jumped out, ran to the rear of his car and gave a long, painful groan and put his face in his hands.

He seemed so upset that the cop was moved to ease up on him a bit.

"Come on, now," he said, "you don't have to take it so hard. It isn't that serious."

"It isn't?" cried the motorist. "Then you know what happened to my boat and trailer?"

The Sergeant

"Well," snarled the tough old sergeant to the bewildered private. "I suppose after you get discharged from the Army, you'll just be waiting for me to die so you can come and spit on my grave."

"Not me, Sarge!" the private replied. "Once I get out of the Army, I'm never going to stand in line again!"

Found Money

Dave: "Last Sunday I found a wallet packed with money down by the church."

Steve: "Did you give it back?"

Dave: "Not yet. I'm still trying to decide if it's a temptation from the devil or the answer to a prayer."

Opee's Interesting Facts

Eww! School Cafeterias Serve WHAT?

Prune burgers. Say what you want about adults who live inside Washington's beltway, but give the kids a LOT of credit. The Department of Agriculture used the unwitting students at Van Ness Elementary School in the nation's capital as gourmet guinea pigs. They fed them prune burgers.

Of course, they didn't TELL them they were prune burgers until after the kids ate them--and discovered they actually liked them.

"The hamburger was good. It tastes like a grilled burger," said 12-year-old Mustafa Mattocks, who was one of 20 students deputized as Uncle Sam's official taste-taster. What's really sad is that Mustafa said the prune burgers--which are a blend of ground beef and prune puree--tasted better than the food usually served in the cafeteria.

Why PRUNES? The USDA is under pressure from Congress to bolster produce prices. One way to do this is to buy up surplus crops, which includes cranberries and prunes, and then give them to schools. But to make it work, they have to figure out a way to use cranberries and prunes as ingredients in food kids will eat. USDA did a similar test last year in Los Angeles.

The delicacies served to the innocent children included sweet potato pancakes (liked it), snack bars made with dates and almonds (liked it), broccoli guacamole (a dud), asparagus guacamole (the ultimate dud), prune burgers (a hit), and pizza topped with prune sauce (liked it--amazingly). Oh yes, the government now calls prunes "dried plums." Those Washington spin doctors...

Maybe He Is a Van Gogh

One semester when my brother, Peter, attended the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis, an art-student friend of his asked if he could paint Peter's portrait for a class assignment. Peter agreed, and the art student painted and submitted the portrait, only to receive a C minus.

The art student approached the professor to ask why the grade was so poor. The teacher told him that the proportions in the painting were incorrect.

"The head is too big," the professor explained. "The shoulders are too wide, and the feet are enormous."

The next day, the art student brought Peter to see the professor. He took one look at my brother. "Okay, A minus," he said.

The Prescription

Because of an ear infection, Little Johnny, had to go to the pediatrician. The doctor directed his comments and questions to Little Johnny in a professional manner. When he asked Little Johnny, "Is there anything you are allergic to?" Little Johnny nodded and whispered in his ear. Smiling, the pediatrician wrote out a prescription and handed it to Little Johnny's mother. She tucked it into her purse without looking at it. As the pharmacist filled the order, he remarked on the unusual food- drug interaction Little Johnny must have. Little Johnny's mother looked puzzled until he showed her the label on the bottle. As per the doctor's instructions, it read, "Do not take with broccoli."

By the Book

As chaplain in a university residence hall, I am supposed to uphold all of the school rules, which include a ban on pets. That changed when a kitten adopted me.

The freshmen in my dorm kept my secret. They covered for me by calling my kitten "the Book," since I had so many in my room.

One morning I was leaving the dorm with the kitten in a carrier. A student stopped me and asked, "Where are you taking the Book?"

I explained that I was taking the kitten to the vet. "She's getting neutered today," I told him.

"Hmmm," the student responded, "no sequels."

Math Dyslexia

A worker returned from his visit to the doctor and a colleague asked him how he made out.

"Not bad. The doctor told me that I have Math Dyslexia."

The other fellow said, "Gee, that sounds bad."

"Actually, the Doctor told me not to worry, because 17 out of 5 people have it."

Water in the Glass

A well-known proverb states that an optimistic would say a glass is half full, while a pessimist would say it is half empty. What would people of different professions and walks of life say?

- The BANKER would say that the glass has just under 50% of its net worth in liquid assets.

- The GOVERNMENT would say that the glass is fuller than if the opposition party were in power.

- The OPPOSITION would say that it is irrelevant because the present administration has changed the way such volume statistics are collected.

- The ECONOMIST would say that, in real terms, the glass is 25% fuller than at the same time last year.

- The PHILOSOPHER would say that, if the glass was in the forest and no one was there to see it, would it be half anything?

- The PSYCHIATRIST would ask, "What did your mother say about the glass?"

- The PHYSICIST would say that the volume of this cylinder is divided into two equal parts; one a colorless, odorless liquid, the other a colorless, odorless gas. Thus the cylinder is neither full nor empty. Rather, each half of the cylinder is full, one with a gas, one with a liquid.

- The ENGINEER would say the glass is twice as large as it needs to be.

- The SEASONED DRINKER would say that the glass doesn't have enough ice in it.

Those Senators

Senators William B. Spong of Virginia and Hiram Fong of Hawaii sponsored a bill recommending the mass ringing of church bells to welcome the arrival in Hong Kong of the U.S. Table Tennis Team after its tour of China.

The bill failed to pass, cheating the Senate out of passing the Spong-Fong Hong Kong Ping Pong Ding Dong Bell Bill.

- All 50 states are listed across the top of the Lincoln Memorial on the back of the $5 bill.

- No word in the English language rhymes with month, orange, silver, or purple.

A Prayer For Moms and Dads

Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray my sanity to keep.
For if some peace I do not find,
I'm pretty sure I'll lose my mind.

I pray I find a little quiet
Far from the daily family riot
May I lie back--not have to think about what they're stuffing down the sink, or who they're with, or where they're at
and what they're doing to the cat.

I pray for time all to myself
(did something just fall off a shelf?)

To cuddle in my nice, soft bed
(Oh no, another goldfish--dead!)

Some silent moments for goodness sake
(Did I just hear a window break?)

And that I need not cook or clean--
(well heck, I've got the right to dream)

Yes now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray my wits about me keep,
But as I look around I know--
I must have lost them long ago!

Bed Time

Pajama-clad tot
calling out to family:

A Really Bad Pun

A bill collector knocked on the door of a country debtor.
"Is Fred home?" he asked the woman who answered the door.

"Sorry," the woman replied. "Fred's gone for cotton."

The next day the collector tried again. "Is Fred here today?"

"No, sir," she said, "I'm afraid Fred has gone for cotton."

When he returned the third day he sarcastically said, "I suppose Fred is gone for cotton again,?"

"No," the woman answered solemnly, "Fred died yesterday."

Suspicious that he was being avoided, the collector decided to wait a week and investigate the cemetery himself. But sure enough, there was poor Fred's tombstone, with this inscription: ... "Gone, But Not for Cotton."

The Best Position For Prayer

Three preachers sat discussing the best positions for prayer, while a telephone repairman worked nearby.

"Kneeling is definitely best," claimed one.

"No," another contended. "I get the best results standing with my hands outstretched to Heaven."

"You're both wrong," the third insisted. "The most effective prayer position is lying prostate, face down on the floor."

The repairman could contain himself no longer.

"Gentlemen," he interrupted, "the best praying I ever did was hanging upside down from a telephone pole."

Little Hardware Problem, Big Hardware Solution

This IT technician works as a contractor at a Defense Department facility, where the data-security requirements are stringent. "We occasionally have to destroy BlackBerries that are too old to be reused," he says. "But there isn't a very good wiping process for these things -- at least as far as the DOD is concerned with their precious secrets."

So standard operating procedure is to disassemble each decommissioned BlackBerry and break the important components individually. That's what the tech expects to do when a user drops off an old device for disposal. But when he tries to crack the case, he finds that the tiny screw heads are stripped. Fortunately, a road crew is tearing up the pavement outside the office, and he has a good rapport with construction guys.

"Can I get you to crush this? Thanks!" Crunch! Result: BlackBerry unit destroyed. Approved destruction method: Backhoe shovel head plus pavement. No extra charge for embedding gravel into the unit. "I degaussed it too, just to be safe," says the tech. "Then I brought it to my boss and told him that his refurbished BlackBerry was just delivered."

May I Be Excused, Please!

Three men were in the hospital waiting room. The nurse came in and said, "Mr. Brown, you are the father of twins." "Now wouldn't you know it," said Mr. Brown. "I work for the Minnesota Twins." A little later the nurse came back and said, "Mr. Green, you are the proud father of triplets." "Well, wouldn't you know it," said Mr. Green. "I work for the 3M company." When the nurse came back, the third guy was putting on his jacket. "Where are you going?" she asked. "I'm leaving," the man said, "I work at the 7-Up bottling plant!"

Skip-A-Day Diet Plan

Mr. Lee was terribly overweight, so his doctor put him on a diet. "I want you to eat regularly for 2 days, then skip a day, and repeat this procedure for 2 weeks. The next time I see you, you'll have lost at least 5 pounds." When Mr Lee returned, he shocked the doctor by losing nearly 20 pounds. "Why, that's amazing!" the doctor said, "Did you follow my instructions?" Mr Lee nodded. "I'll tell you though, I thought I was going to drop dead that 3rd day." "From hunger, you mean?"

"BE WISE, UNIONIZE!"

Conditional Devotion?

An older couple regularly attended church. The pastor was much impressed by how harmonious and how in love they seemed. They always held hands all through the service.

One day after church, the pastor couldn't resist going up to them to express his admiration. He said, "I find it so inspirational to see how deeply in love you are, even, after all these years, holding hands like that."

The wife looked up sharply and said, "It's not love, Pastor, I'm just keeping him from cracking his knuckles."

The Love Boat

Two friends are discussing the possibility of love. "I thought I was in love three times," one friend says. "How so?" his friend asks. "Five years ago I deeply cared for a woman who wanted nothing to do with me." "Was that not love?" his friend asks. "No," he replies. "That was obsession. And then two years ago I deeply cared for an attractive woman who didn't understand me." "Was that not love?" "No," he replies. "That was lust. And just last year I met a woman aboard a cruise ship to the Caribbean. She was smart, funny, and a great conversationalist. And everywhere I followed her on that boat, I would get this strange sensation in the pit of my stomach." "Was that not love?" his friend asks. "No," he replies. "That was motion sickness."

Pandemonium Strikes Again

When the ice-maker on our refrigerator broke, my husband dropped by the local hardware to find the part. Because the sun was so bright that day and the interior of the store was dark, his eyes hadn't quite adjusted when he walked in. He accidentally stepped on the foot of a woman examining some samples. She screamed, causing my husband to jump sideways into a display of fireplace tools that went crashing in every direction. Unnerved, he stumbled over to the service desk, and as he put his hands on the counter, he flipped over a bowl of marbles, scattering them everywhere.

After taking a deep breath to calm himself, he announced to the wide-eyed woman working there, "My refrigerator doesn't work."
She replied, simply, "I don't doubt it."

Talking Dog

A man tried to sell his neighbor a new dog. "This is a talking dog," he said, "and you can have him for five dollars."
The neighbor said, "Who do you think you're kidding with this talking dog stuff? There's no such animal."
Suddenly the dog looked up with tears in his eyes. "Please buy me, Sir," he pleaded. "This man is cruel. He never buys me a meal, never bathes me, never takes me for a walk. And I used to be the richest trick dog in America. I performed before kings. I was in the army and was decorated ten times."
"Hey!" said the neighbour. "He can talk. Why do you want to sell him for just five dollars?"
"Because," said the seller, "I'm getting tired of all his lies."
